[Mr. R. Krishna Pillai.]

MR. S. PARAMESVARA AIYAR (Secretary to Government): That assumes that an application for furniture and building grants was made by the Mahila Mandiram, about which Government have no information.

Revenue Work in the Edavakai Pakuthies of Chirayinkil Taluk.

207. MR. V. KUNJUKRISHNA PILLAI (Chirayinkil) :(a) With reference to the nine pakuthies of the Chirayinkil taluk in which Government do not collect public revenue, will the Government be pleased to state:

(1) whether the unassessed waste lands in the above pakuthies have not been surveyed and demarcated as pandaravakai waste lands;

(2) whether any puduval registry has been effected with respect to these lands since the last Settlement, and, if so, by whom the applications have been enquired into and the registry effected; and

(3) whether the authorities who dispose of these applications are the Tahsildars or the Sripadam authorities, and, if the latter, whether they are empowered to do so?

(b) Are the Government aware that the Sripadam authorities and the Kilimanur Edavakai unauthorisedly collect land revenue without issuing pattahs?

(c) Will the Government be pleased to remedy the said evil through the local Peishkar?

MR. R. KRISHNA PILLAI (Chief Secretary to Government):

(a) (1) No. The unassessed waste lands are surveyed and demarcated as poramboke, tharisu or kadutharisu.

(2) Yes. This work is attended to exclusively by the authorities of the Kilimanur Edavakai or the Sripadam, as the case may be.

(3) This item of work is not attended to by the Tahsildar. The Sripadam or the Kilimanur Edavakai authorities, as the case may be, are attending to it as usual. They have not been empowered by the Government to do so.

(b) The answer is in the negative.

(c) The assignment of waste lands within Edavakais is a matter of arrangement between the holder of the lands and the Edavakai authorities, and it does not call for any interference from the Government.
